1 Consumer rights following disposal and account reconciliation

1.1 In this notice "the Act" means the National Credit Act 34 of 2005, "you" means TEST Debtord6e7e38a38c8 and "we" means TEST Asset Credit (Pty) Ltd, registered credit provider NCRCP99999. This is our notice under section 127(5) of the Act after the sale of the asset you surrendered under agreement SYNTHETIC-NCA-SETTLEMENT. The figures above show the result of the sale and how it was applied to your account.

1.2 The net proceeds exceeded the settlement value by R 940.00. Under section 127(6) of the Act we remitted that amount to you through your verified bank account. The remittance was executed on 18 October 2026. Actual bank execution is recorded with retained bank evidence; this is not merely a payment instruction.

1.3 The agreement ends when any shortfall has been paid to us and any surplus has been paid to you. If you believe the sale price or any cost shown is wrong, tell us in writing; section 128 of the Act also allows you to apply to the National Consumer Tribunal to review the sale.
