1 Consumer rights following disposal and account reconciliation

1.1 In this notice "the Act" means the National Credit Act 34 of 2005, "you" means SYNTHETIC Sole Proprietor and "we" means SYNTHETIC Credit Provider (Pty) Ltd, registered credit provider NCRCP00000. This is our notice under section 127(5) of the Act after the sale of the asset you surrendered under agreement AF-NCA-SAMPLE-1. The figures above show the result of the sale and how it was applied to your account.

1.2 The net proceeds were less than the settlement value. Under section 127 of the Act we demand payment of the shortfall of R 45,000.00. If you do not pay it within 10 business days after you receive this notice, we may begin legal proceedings against you for it. Contact us if you cannot pay it in full.

1.3 The agreement ends when any shortfall has been paid to us and any surplus has been paid to you. If you believe the sale price or any cost shown is wrong, tell us in writing; section 128 of the Act also allows you to apply to the National Consumer Tribunal to review the sale.
