1 Consumer rights following disposal and account reconciliation

1.1 In this notice "the Act" means the National Credit Act 34 of 2005, "you" means TEST Debtora1c0813148aa and "we" means TEST Asset Credit (Pty) Ltd, registered credit provider NCRCP99999. This is our notice under section 127(5) of the Act after the sale of the asset you surrendered under agreement SYNTHETIC-NCA-HELD. The figures above show the result of the sale and how it was applied to your account.

1.2 The net proceeds exceeded the settlement value by R 940.00. That surplus remains payable and is held because we do not yet have a staff-verified bank account in your name. This is recorded as an exception; give us your bank details and proof of account so we can remit the surplus promptly. This account statement does not discharge our surplus liability or terminate the agreement under section 127(6)(b). We will provide a supplemental remittance confirmation after payment.

1.3 The agreement ends when any shortfall has been paid to us and any surplus has been paid to you. If you believe the sale price or any cost shown is wrong, tell us in writing; section 128 of the Act also allows you to apply to the National Consumer Tribunal to review the sale.
