1 Consumer rights following disposal and account reconciliation

1.1 In this notice "the Act" means the National Credit Act 34 of 2005, "you" means TEST Debtor632b2f11cd6f and "we" means TEST Asset Credit (Pty) Ltd, registered credit provider NCRCP99999. This is our notice under section 127(5) of the Act after the sale of the asset you surrendered under agreement SYNTHETIC-NCA-TRIBUNAL. The figures above show the result of the sale and how it was applied to your account.

1.2 The net proceeds exceeded the settlement value by R 940.00. Under section 127(6) of the Act we remitted that amount to the National Consumer Tribunal because another credit provider has a registered credit agreement with you concerning the same goods. The remittance was executed on 18 October 2026. Actual bank execution is recorded with retained bank evidence; this is not merely a payment instruction.

1.3 The surplus has been remitted to the National Consumer Tribunal under section 127(6)(a), for distribution as it directs. This notice does not assert termination under section 127(6)(b), which concerns remittance to the consumer. Section 128 of the Act also allows you to apply to the Tribunal to review the sale.
